Glaciers, Floods and Farms: The Unlikely and Surprising History (and Future) of the Zumbro River

Kevin Strauss, education coordinator of the Zumbro Watershed Partnership gives a crash-course on the 4.5-billion-year history of the Zumbro River Valley.

Learn how Minnesota went from mountain range to tropical ocean to ice age iceland. Discover how glaciers made the river we see today, and how recent events are changing the river.

Monday, May 13
7:15 pm in the library
Public is welcome. Refreshments will be served.

DON'T FLUSH!

Grease
Band-Aids
Cat litter

Hair

Chewing gum
Cigarette butts
Paper towels

Condoms

Dental floss

Food

Dryer sheets

Feminine products

Flushable wipes &
Baby wipes

Cleaning wipes

The label might say "flushable," but disposable wipes and other products are clogging our sewer lines and damaging pumps and other equipment.
